

Report designed for

Sally Sample

Ignition Business Coaches, LLC West Hartford, West Haven, Wethersfield, CT www.IgnitionCoaches.com 860-760-7090

Introduction

Every employable person will match some positions better than other positions. This report provides information about Sally Sample presented in a manner to help you understand how she matches with this selected position within your organization.

This report reflects the responses provided by Sally Sample when she completed the ProfileXT assessment. The result for each characteristic is illustrated on a scale from 1 to 10. The darker area on each scale represents the best Performance Model for the position. The enlarged segment of the scale shows where Sally scored. If the enlarged segment is dark, Sally is in the Performance model. If it is lighter, she is not. Information about Sally is reported in these four categories:

- Profile for Thinking Style Learning Index, Verbal Skill, Verbal Prasoning, Numerical Ability, and Numeric Reasoning.
- Profile for Behavioral Traits Energy Level, Assertingless, Sociability, Manageability, Attitude, Decisiveness, Accommodating, Independence and Opjects Jurgment.
- Profile for Interests Enterprising, Financial, department, People Service, Technical, Mechanical, and Creative.
- The Total Person & Manageme Considerations Description of Sally as a person and how to most effectively maximize her potential.

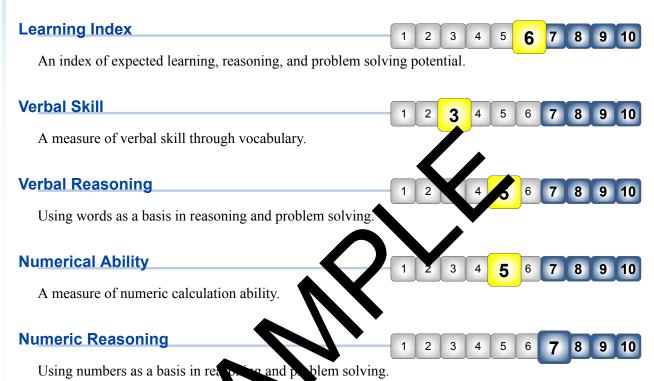

Note: Additional considerations a displayed when Sally falls outside your Performance Model.

If Sally is being considered for this polition and her results fall outside the Performance Model, you should print the compar on Lervie Cuide for Sally. This Guide provides appropriate interview questions for each instance where fally is outside the model. These interview questions will guide the interviewer in exploring important areas where information from the interview will effectively assist the interviewer in making an informed decision about her placement.

Please consult the User's Guide for additional information on using these results when working with Sally. As discussed in the User's Guide for this product, the results from this or any assessment should never make up more than a third of the final decision in placements.

Profile for Thinking Style

When viewing the scales on this page and the next, the darker shading represents the Job Performance Model for the role of Engineer. The larger box indicates the individual's score.

Profile for Behavioral Traits Energy Level Tendency to display endurance and capacity for a fast pace. Assertiveness 10 Tendency to take charge of people and situations. Leads more than follows. Sociability 10 Tendency to be outgoing, people-oriented, and participate with of Manageability 10 Tendency to follow policies, accept external control and work within the rules. ision Attitude 10 Tendency to have a positive attitude regarding Decisiveness Uses available information to m quickly. Accommodating 10 ative, agreeable. To be a team person. Tendency to be friendly, coope Independence 10 Tendency to be self-reliant, self-directed, to take independent action, and make own decisions. Objective Judgment The ability to think clearly and be objective in decision-making.

Distortion for this assessment is within the acceptable range.

Profile for Interests

The Interests section assesses the relative interests between the six interest areas: Enterprising, Financial/Administrative, People Service, Technical, Mechanical, and Creative. For the Job Match Performance Model of Engineer, the top three interests, presented in order, are Technical, Mechanical, and Financial/Administrative. The top three interests for Sally are Enterprising, People Service, and Creative. Ms. Sample shares none of these interest areas..

Top Interests for Sally Sample

Top Interests for this Performance Model

Enterprising

Indicates interest in activities associated with persuading others, sales, and presenting ideas.

People Service

Indicates interest in activities such as helping people and promoting the welfare of others.

Creative

Indicates interest in activity using imagination, creativity and original sales neas.

rechnical

Indicates interest in scientific civities chnical data, and reserve

Mechanical

Indicates interest in working with tools, equipment, and machinery.

Financial/Administrative

Indicates interest in activities such as organizing information or business procedures.

The Total Person

This part of the report discusses the results for Sally Sample on each of the scales in all three sections. The Behavioral and Management Considerations for each scale relate to her scores without reference to the Engineer model. If her score falls outside the model for a particular scale, Additional Considerations will be listed as suggestions to help Sally Sample adapt her behavior to better fit the job.

Learning Index

An index of expected learning, reasoning, and problem solving potential.

Behavioral Considerations

- Her overall learning index is average and suggests good potential for quickly learning new information.
- She is generally adaptive in a variety of the ning auations.
- Upon completing a training program, I is Samp should pick up new concepts easily when appropriately presented.
- Overall, Ms. Sample may be expected to implete a typical training program with success.

- While capable of meeting the challenge of advanced training, Ms. Sample may become frustrated during me more fundamental portions. Create enthusiasm during these phases by directing as much assert asibility to participate as is possible.
- Require consistent performance by Ms. Sample in order to avoid boredom on her part. Sally will respond best to challenges in both the training and daily work experiences.
- Ms. Sample acquires and understands general information, but may find highly complex data or instruction challenging. Her ability to conceptualize and utilize ideas put forth in training is high average, but not significantly beyond the norm.
- During fundamental training, use creative participation to maintain her motivation, which she may lose if not particularly challenged.

Additional Considerations

Ms. Sample achieved a Learning Index score outside the designated profile for this Performance Model. This suggests her approach to learning new information is different than the position typically requires. Discussions with her should determine her motivation for participating in training and what forms of training are most effective for her.

Verbal Skill

A measure of verbal skill through vocabulary.

Behavioral Considerations

- With training and experience, Ms. Sample should be able to develop a higher level of verbal ability.
- She demonstrates a level of verbal skill slightly below that of the general population.
- Sally may initially need extra time when using verbal and atten information.
- Ms. Sample may not have had much recent opportunity to use erbal kills in a work situation.

Management Considerations

- When giving verbal instruction to her do at make the communication too lengthy. Break down complex instructions into individual thes. Her report back to you on her progress. Be very procedural.
- Practice patience and acceptant, when communicating with Ms. Sample.
- To achieve the best results in communications with Sally, review instructions after they have been given to her, focusing other step-by-step understanding of the information.
- Do not be value in your instructions to her. Follow a straightforward and structured line of communication

Additional Considerations

On the Verbal Skill scale Ms. Sample is below the designated Performance Model for this position. This suggests that her ability to use a thorough vocabulary is less than the position typically requires and that she could have a problem with communicating ideas and concepts. Discussions with her should explore the possibility that for Ms. Sample, the position may be overly challenging and could lead to frustration and a reduction in her level of performance.

Verbal Reasoning

Using words as a basis in reasoning and problem solving.

Behavioral Considerations

- She demonstrates adequate and, in some areas, good verbal reasoning ability; certain areas and complexities will need training.
- Ms. Sample will typically assimilate information as well as most people in the general population.
- Sally would not be expected to have any difficulty in effect vely ommunicating thoughts and ideas to others.
- Ms. Sample is proficient in the use of words and language.

Management Considerations

- Ms. Sample requires additional time it is occass terbal information. You should communicate with her in a direct and structured manner. It wiew information and ask for clarity in her communications.
- To help overcome any Charleties in erbal problem solving, maintain close observation to be certain that verbal information as a rely understood by Ms. Sample.
- Using complex words and arbal information may require deliberation and consideration on her part. Observe her arectioness in solving problems and offer assistance when necessary.
- In some situation cially with complex verbal information, Ms. Sample may require additional time to make decisions. Offer supervision and provide explanations of the information as needed.

Additional Considerations

Ms. Sample achieved a Verbal Reasoning score outside the designated profile for this Performance Model. This suggests her ability to use words as a basis in reasoning is different than the position typically requires but she may have no problem with the ability to perform in this area. Discussions with her should explore whether the requirements of the position may be at an inappropriate level for Ms. Sample.

Numerical Ability

A measure of numeric calculation ability.

Behavioral Considerations

- She may need assistance with complex mathematics or technical calculations.
- Sally is comfortable analyzing basic numerical material and performing some mathematical functions without relying on a calculator.
- Ms. Sample should be able to grasp mathematical principle that apply to the job.
- Ms. Sample should be capable of learning basic mathematical sinciples as necessary.

Management Considerations

- She may become frustrated by tasks involving the calculation of complex data. If needed, provide training in appropriate mather tical leas and give consistent feedback.
- Observe her performance in calculating on alex data that convey multivariate information. Aid Sally as needed with a mentor of the alix d training.
- Ms. Sample may occas in the require additional time to process complex numerical information. Provide assistance in form of available tools to aid in calculations.
- To facilitate by development, you will need to have Sally trained in any advanced mathematics relevant to he was.

Additional Consideration

Ms. Sample achieved a Numerical Ability score outside the job profile for this position. This suggests she is at a different level in calculating numerical data than the position typically requires. Discussions with her should determine her potential to perform at an appropriate level on the job.

Numeric Reasoning

Using numbers as a basis in reasoning and problem solving.

Behavioral Considerations

- She completes numerical problems with greater success than the general population.
- Sally grasps numerical concepts readily.
- Ms. Sample demonstrates a relatively strong ability to solve y oblems of a numerical nature.
- Ms. Sample works well with numbers and numerical conce

- Ms. Sample is capable of assimilating data of make decision, but may occasionally be frustrated by a lack of challenge in this are Advess frustrations and provide ways to challenge her abilities.
- To avoid miscommunications then Salla is a pressing numerical information, coach her on proper communication technique, that we hasize a common level of expression as needed.
- Sally is adept at seeing lengtionsh, between numerical data and decision making. She may however, require extra chillenges in not provided by the job to avoid a loss of motivation.
- Ms. Sample is more preficile tin processing numerical information than most people. She may experience from an if bt sufficiently challenged, and may be willing to take on extra duties that allow her to practice this skill.

Energy Level

Tendency to display endurance and capacity for a fast pace.

Behavioral Considerations

- Ms. Sample can be relied upon to complete assignments in a timely manner.
- She can act with a sense of urgency, even under pressure.
- Sally typically works at a pace that is consistent.
- Ms. Sample is able to consistently maintain a quick work page

Management Considerations

- Sally is a focused individual who prefers a dusy work encirchment in most cases. This is productive but can lead to frustration if she lectures bored. When extra work becomes available, delegate it to her. This will be make ain her motivation as long as she is not the sole target of delegation.
- On occasion, Ms. Sample may deatons a frustration with her energy level if the workload slows. Listen to her constraints or feelings about this and provide structure to maintain motivation.
- Ms. Sample r by appear les motivated if the duties of this position do not keep her busy. Coach her or some pack herself and how to make use of any occasional lag time with spontaneous projects the help her work with others.
- She typically demonstrates a somewhat high level of energy. Give her the opportunity to take on additional projects on occasion and involve her in group projects that require timely resolution.

Additional Considerations

On the Energy Level scale Ms. Sample scored outside the designated profile for this particular Performance Model. This suggests that her drive and enthusiasm is at a different level than the position typically requires. Discussions with her should explore the possibility the position may not be sufficiently challenging to maintain her interest or level of performance.

Assertiveness

Tendency to take charge of people and situations. Leads more than follows.

Behavioral Considerations

- Ms. Sample can make decisions, enforce company policies and act with authority. She should be capable of making unpopular decisions when necessary.
- Sally is highly motivated by situations in which she is held accountable for results. She is motivated by power and authority.
- She has a strong need to make decisions and determine out one
- Ms. Sample has a strong need to be in charge, to the leader.

Management Considerations

- Ms. Sample tends to take charge in a coup. So ourage her participation as a peer within the group and foster her ability to be patient with the opinions of others. Training in active listening may enhance her ability to constrate with the team.
- She expresses a preference for including the decisions of others. Act as a role model in your capacity as a group least demonstrating an authoritative yet democratic leadership style. Provide feedback cape uning the effectiveness of your style and why it works in certain situations.
- If necessary, Same Ms. Sample the opportunity to act as a follower from time to time. Provide constant feedback in wate and mentor her ability to sometimes let go of her control and responsibility for the actions and decisions of others.
- Sally may have a tendency to insist on leading others. This may need to be tempered with a willingness to allow others a certain amount of control. Training that focuses on control issues may reveal a way to do this. Offer her the opportunity to lead the group as a reward for successful participation in such training.

Additional Considerations

Ms. Sample scored above the Performance Model for this position in the Assertiveness scale. She may find the environment of this position challenging in the area of how much control is appropriately exerted over others. While talking with her, determine her ability to practice greater diplomacy in her interpersonal relations.

Sociability

Tendency to be outgoing, people-oriented, and participate with others.

Behavioral Considerations

- Ms. Sample is only moderately motivated by assignments that require interpersonal contact with people.
- She may not always enjoy work that requires contact with the public.
- Her sociability is only moderately compatible with establishing a retwork of contacts.
- Ms. Sample prefers direct and to the point communication and may a old spending time on small talk and social amenities.

- If you need to develop her ability to interact with the group, engage Sally in casual conversation. Breaking down walls of the personal distance between her and others may encourage better participation.
- As a way to develop her interpers, all skee, invite Sally to as many group discussions as possible. Maintain a cas are reanon with her, as appropriate, to model the culture of your organization.
- In her interactions with tean members, Sally may be hesitant on occasion to communicate her perspective. It needed, encourage participation and make a point of initiating her involvement if necessary. As time here, es, she should become more comfortable with the group and provide her fair share of input.
- On occasion, Ms. Sample may appear distant with the group. If necessary, support her efforts to interact with others and maintain consistency with your rewards.

Manageability

Tendency to follow policies, accept external controls and supervision, and work within the rules.

Behavioral Considerations

- Sally demonstrates a positive attitude concerning organizational constraints and restrictions.
- She should be willing to conform to company policies without feeling any loss of personal freedom.
- Ms. Sample is friendly, cooperative and should be fairly explored to make.
- Ms. Sample is typically willing to accept guidance and suggestions from others.

- If it becomes necessary to decrease her respect of procedural norms, demonstrate in your daily work how it is acceptable to bend the cless within the limits of your organizational culture.

  Provide assistance initially, until she gains be confidence to make independent choices.
- Sally may fall back on concrete for dur when the task at hand becomes complex or stressful. If this tendency needs to be change do so by involving her in group discussions that require creative brainstorming and developing unique options.
- In a situation that appears sustrating, Ms. Sample may try to seek out supervision too quickly. If necessary, incompact defendence by providing leading questions that challenge her to create her own solutions
- Ms. Sample appears to prefer a strict procedural structure to help guide her daily work pattern. If it becomes necessary, help her break out of this mold by encouraging independence. Reward efforts to develop creative solutions to accomplishing tasks.

Attitude

Tendency to have a positive attitude regarding people and outcomes.

Behavioral Considerations

- Ms. Sample may be slow to show a positive attitude regarding risk, changes in policies and guidelines, and unexpected challenges.
- She may be less easily misled than others.
- Sally may tend to be more vigilant and on-guard than other
- Ms. Sample may be inclined to assume a negative position and become critical of others.

Management Considerations

- Ms. Sample demonstrates a tendency to be guarded when interacting with others. If necessary, build her basic trust with informal great activates to ease her doubt about the motivations of others. These activities can be as simple as functions of office meetings and informal discussions.
- Sally may demonstrate a distruction with a about her co-workers, customers, or her work. If necessary, provide her with an appropriate amount of time to discuss her feelings, but redirect her by displaying a calm and to accompression. Stress the necessity to focus on the tasks at hand and to accompression. Tality for her own work.
- She may have a territor lame others for outcomes that are her responsibility. Should this become an issue, suggest discussion for a later time to address her negative attitude, then give feedback on her performance and how to make positive steps toward more productive behavior.
- Sally may express doubts about the outcome of some projects, appearing pessimistic. While maintaining an empathetic manner, confront her on alternative solutions and how she may contribute to the group's success.

Additional Considerations

On the Attitude scale Ms. Sample is below the designated Performance Model for this position. This suggests that her general response to others will be pessimistic compared to the most successful individuals in this position. Discussions with her should explore the possibility that for Ms. Sample, the position may be overly challenging and could lead to frustration and a reduction in her level of performance.

Decisiveness

Uses available information to make decisions quickly.

Behavioral Considerations

- Ms. Sample can stand firm on decisions and is not inclined to back down once a decision is made.
- Ms. Sample is decisive and quick to act. She is likely to enjoy positions which require immediate action.
- She is inclined to take decisive action, to move decisions I war
- Sally is capable of responding to emergencies and esolving process.

- It is important that the concept of patience is design-making be stressed to Ms. Sample. If this is necessary, ask for deliberate and analytical placesses in her decisions.
- Ms. Sample may require train. how o be nore deliberate if her quick decision-making becomes a problem. Emphasize the importance of analyzing information more thoroughly.
- If unnecessary risk is to be avoid a stress that sometimes the importance of deadlines is outweighed by the level of consequence inherent with making uninformed decisions.
- Sally may appear to spental eous in her decision-making. If this is the case, counsel her on the need to avoid unnecessal risk with cautious and deliberate decisions.

Accommodating

Tendency to be friendly, cooperative, agreeable. To be a team person.

Behavioral Considerations

- Ms. Sample can stand her ground whenever someone disagrees with her.
- While Ms. Sample tends to be agreeable, she will not be afraid to question ideas if necessary.
- She is usually agreeable, cooperative and good natured, but des not go along just to get along.
- Sally can be slower than others to avoid arguments, disagregor as and/ conflict.

- If she becomes frustrated by working with close who hold a mions contrary to her own, provide individual goals that satisfy the grap's cleds while allowing her the room to feel comfortable. She is somewhat skilled to cope uting with others, so foster this ability and reward her efforts to grow in this area.
- On occasion, Ms. Sample may coose compete with her team in an unproductive manner. If this occurs, make you a savailable to listen to her frustrations and make authoritative decisions with regard to single at team together.
- Under the stress of meeting yoals in a timely manner, Ms. Sample may become less cooperative, and to conflect with her team. Reinforce a cooperative style and reward her ability to seek out the produces of the team.
- Conflict may play a role in her performance when Sally is feeling the stress of deadlines.
   Redirect her frustration, providing feedback that helps her to realize the effect of her attitude on others.

Independence

Tendency to be self-reliant, self-directed, to take independent action, and make own decisions.

Behavioral Considerations

- Ms. Sample takes on new developments independently, bringing in co-workers only when absolutely necessary.
- Ms. Sample prefers to run her own show and will quietly fight being restricted.
- She is highly independent, possibly requiring firm supervision and clearly defined guidelines.
- Sally is an independent worker who prefers minimal guidance and counting.

- Her independence may create problems it the following or procedure. If this becomes an issue, reinforce compliance and regular, action to perform the performance. Reward her efforts to cooperate by allowing some independence in areas of the er concern.
- If she becomes frustrated, allow Vis. San, le some breathing room to let off the pressure she may experience from supervise cattention. Remain authoritative without becoming authoritarian and rigid.
- Due to her self-tenance, yet may rarely hear feedback from Sally. Maintain open communicate in with the orester an appropriate supervisory relationship. Listen to her when she appears frustrated are recognize her positive performance.
- Ms. Sample prefers to act independently and may become frustrated with excessive supervisory attention. Handle with care but remain authoritative. Encourage a consultative relationship.

Objective Judgment

The ability to think clearly and be objective in decision-making.

Behavioral Considerations

- Ms. Sample uses judgment that may become more subjective when she feels pressured.
- Ms. Sample may tend to make less thoughtful decisions if she allows personal biases and opinions to replace sound judgment.
- Her judgment will be much more intuitive when addressing critical independent decision making responsibilities.
- Ms. Sample tends to be a subjective thinker and exphasizes person opinions more than factual data.

Management Considerations

- Ms. Sample may require greater struction in he decision-making process. Coach her to avoid making assumptions and to be thorough in a therma appropriate details in order to make more informed decisions.
- Coach her on investigating variety finformation sources when making decisions. Emphasize dealing with facts and other objects data before acting on any assumptions.
- Coach Ms. Scaple on how to be more objective when making decisions. Training should emphasize the state oy-stop process of logical reasoning.
- Sally may require the don to take more time to gather information to make sound decisions. Review her efforts, guiding her on avoiding snap-judgments and making informed decisions.

Additional Considerations

On the Judgment scale Ms. Sample is below the designated Performance Model for this position. This suggests that her decision-making process is less objective than the position typically requires and that she could have a problem with the pragmatic nature of the job. Discussions with her should explore the possibility that for Ms. Sample, the position could lead to frustration and a reduction in her level of performance.

Interests

The Interests section assesses the relative interests between the six interest areas. The top three interests for Sally and the Performance Model are presented below in ranked order. The interests shared by both are circled.

Sally

Performance Model

Indicates interest in scientific activities, technical data, and

Enterprising

Indicates interest in activities associated with persuading others, sales, and presenting ideas.

People Service

Indicates interest in activities such as helping people and promoting the welfare of others.

M. hani a

Technical

Indicatinterest in working with tools equipment, and machinery.

Creative

Indicates interest in activities usi imagination, creativity, and original sales ideas.

Financial/Administrative

Indicates interest in activities such as organizing information or business procedures.

Ms. Sample scored high st in the Charlow, Enterprising and People Service themes on the inventory. She is attracted to positions in which she can use her creative side in a business environment that allows for a high degree of contact with people. She appears to be drawn toward opportunities to solve problems in an innovative way. The chance to serve the needs of customers and the public in general also relates to this interest pattern.

With Enterprising as her primary area of interest, Ms. Sample is likely to seek out activities that involve entrepreneurial pursuits and leadership. Her focus, above all other areas of interest, lies in pursuing objectives in the lively world of business. These kinds of activities motivate her most effectively.

Secondly, she is motivated by the interaction with others that comes with service to an interpersonal cause as demonstrated by her interest in People Service activities. Helping others or providing them with services may help to energize her in what she does at work.

Finally, her interest in Creative activities rounds out her profile of interests. It promotes a concentration in creative expression, trying novel approaches and appreciating the process of innovation. Although this interest area is not as crucial to overall job satisfaction as her stronger interests, it does play a role.

Additional Considerations

Ms. Sample does not show Technical activities as one of her top three interest areas. She may not find activities associated with this theme as motivating as those individuals who have been successful in this position. Ms. Sample does not show Mechanical activities as one of her top three interest areas. She may not find activities associated with this theme as motivating as those individuals who have been successful in this position. Ms. Sample does not show Financial/Administrative activities as one of her top three interest areas. She may not find activities associated with this theme as activities as those individuals who have been successful in this position.

